

Benefits

When Does Coverage Begin?

Most employee benefits become effective on the first day of hire. To enroll in employee benefits, you must complete your enrollment within 30 days of hire. If you do not complete the enrollment process within 30 days of hire, you must wait until the next Open Enrollment period.

Who is Eligible?

Employees working at least 20 hours per week are eligible for benefits. Additionally, you may also enroll your legal dependents who match one of the following descriptions:

- a. Your legal spouse.
- b. Your dependent children under age 26 (including son, daughter, stepson or stepdaughter of the employee, legally adopted child of the employee and a child who is lawfully placed with the employee for legal adoption by the employee and an eligible foster child). ### Sabbatical

The Gas South sabbatical program provides full-time employees an additional four weeks of paid vacation once every five years. Sabbatical leave is in addition to PTO. The company has no expectations for how employees will use their sabbatical period, other than to take true time away from the office.

Paid Parental and Partner Leave

Parental Leave

Parental Leave is available to benefit-eligible employees who are:

1. employees giving birth; or
2. the primary caregiver of an adopted child or child born through surrogacy

Gas South will provide eight (8) weeks of leave paid at 100% of an employee's base pay (40% if receiving short-term disability (STD) benefits at 60% and 100% if not eligible for STD). Employees may choose to extend their leave using PTO, Sabbatical, or unpaid time at the discretion of their manager, based on the needs of the business and protections afforded under the FMLA or other laws, if applicable.

Paid Parental Leave begins on the baby's birth date or adoption placement date. The eight (8) weeks of paid leave must be used in one block of time.

Partner Leave

Partner Leave is available to benefit-eligible employees who are:

1. employees giving birth; or
2. the primary caregiver of an adopted child or child born through surrogacy
