

1. Defining your personal values

What's your definition of a life well lived?

What really matters to you?

When you have a difficult decision to make, what does your gut force you to pay attention to?

What qualities of your loved ones do you aspire to emulate?

What mottos or sayings do I live by?

What advice do I commonly give to others?

What will I always make time and space for?

