DAY
6

Meet Larrie King

@mister.larrie

Larrie's colorful world is full of fine art, funky crafts, and a little holiday magic. By day, Larrie guides creatives to big dreams (and has done for over a decade!); by night, they're creating merry masterpieces in every color of the season.

Candy Box

Make this holiday season just a little bit sweeter with this customizable elf-inspired candy dish. Perfect for holding treats, trinkets, or keepsakes, it's a unique and elegant gift idea made easy.

1

Prepare your print on two 12" x 12" sheets of light plywood in the Glowforge App. Once printed, paint each surface (front and back) with a thin, even coat of craft paint.

2

Once the paint dries, assemble the box with wood glue. Attach the slotted ring to a solid ring (the rim), and attach the slotted base to the other solid ring (the foot).

3

Place a small amount of wood glue in each slot around the base and lip of the box, and carefully place the rectangle pieces into position, engraved sides facing out.

4

Glue the slotted circle to the underside of the engraved box lid, ensuring the slots are aligned. Finally, glue the lid handle into the lid slots. Optional: Glue the two round faces to either side of the lid handle.

Crafting Cozy with Larrie: Vintage Vibes, Sweet Treats, & Lux Lighting

Crafting Setup

Larrie's setup includes a warm blanket, a cup of Earl Grey, and The Golden Girls or Antiques Roadshow UK on TV. With colored smart lights and all his favorite things around him, the vibe is both luxurious and nostalgic.

Entertainment

A fan of podcasts, he tunes into The Bald and the Beautiful or Unhappy Hour with Matt Bellasai for some laughs while working. For holiday cheer, he loves Kelly Clarkson's Underneath the Tree and classic early 20th-century holiday tunes.

Craft Fuel

Sour Albanese gummies give him an energy boost, and he keeps flavored water or sugar-free lemonade on hand. Hosting a craft night? Expect snacks like pizza or piggies in blankets, along with a candy stash, of course.

Dream Projects

Using his digital design skills to enhance his crafting projects is a new favorite. He's excited to see where digital meets DIY!

Cozy Scent & Decor

His must-have scent? Bath and Body Works' Vanilla Birch — a perfect blend of earthy and sweet for crafting inspiration.

Crafting Quirk

A full-body stretch kicks off each session, and he's got a soft spot for vintage-inspired creations and quirky, handmade gifts. And if he could craft with anyone, it would be Martha Stewart — making her proud would be a dream come true!
