

12 Days of Craftmas

DAY
5

Meet Jordyn Alexander @verdantmoonstudio

Artist and goofball Jordyn is the creative spirit behind Verdant Moon, where every accessory is designed to make your days merry and bright. Starting as a craft fair side gig, she now partners with icons and spreads joy full-time, one handmade goodie at a time.

Happy Snowman Vase

The Happy Snowman Vase is here to sleigh your holiday décor game! Made from plywood and acrylic, this jolly little guy holds your flowers and your festive spirit like a pro. Who needs boring vases when you can have one that literally gives you all the holiday cheer?

📷 See Jordyn make this over on our Instagram!

1

With your Glowforge, cut out the base vase and snowman plates using light Proofgrade plywood. Using your choice of Eco Thin Proofgrade acrylic colors, cut out the eyes, mouth, nose, cheeks, buttons, and scarf.

2

Snap together the inner box pieces. The smallest piece is the bottom, and the longer pieces snap vertically on each side. (If necessary, use a mallet to gently tap the pieces together.)

3

Insert the box's long tabs into one of the base vase plates. (If necessary, use a mallet to gently tap the pieces together.) Repeat with the additional base plate.

4

Spray paint the front and back snowman plates white. Allow to dry fully. Adhere these pieces to the base vase using super glue. Line up the acrylic pieces with the scored lines. Adhere with super glue. Once dry, flip the vase over and adhere the back scarf piece. Name your snowman and enjoy!

12 Days of Craftmas

Crafting Cozy with Jordyn: A Nostalgic Spin on Creative Comfort

Crafting Setup

Jordyn's dream setup? Her parents' basement — a spacious, nostalgic crafting haven. Add in a furry blanket, her dog Indy, and colorful Hue lights, and the space transforms into pure cozy magic.

Entertainment

Her must-watch? Over the Garden Wall, her perfect "autumn-meets-winter" series. Music-wise, she's got her own curated playlist featuring Paramore on repeat, and Perfect Person is her go-to podcast for laughs.

Craft Fuel

Coffee and Trolli gummy worms keep her energized. And if hosting, she's learned to stick to popcorn after a hilarious DIY sundae debacle!

Dream Projects

Next up on Jordyn's list? Tackling a stained glass kit that's been waiting in her cabinet.

Cozy Scent & Decor

She loves the smell of laser-cut wood (or coffee when she's not cutting). Her Hue lights bring a pop of color to her creative space, making every project a little more vibrant.

Crafting Quirk

Who would she craft with? Kermit the Frog — he'd definitely bring the good vibes! And hot take: she's "meh" on All I Want for Christmas is You and won't start the holiday music until Thanksgiving.

