DAY
12

Meet Ralph Tyndall

@ralphyndalldesigns

Paper-craft prodigy Ralph is on a merry mission to make snail mail sparkle again! With his playful, cozy style, he's creating holiday cheer, one handmade card at a time, brightening the season for crafters and creatives alike.

Holiday Greeting Card Album

The perfect way to keep your cherished holiday cards safe and organized for years to come. Designed to store your merry mail or even photos from the season, this customizable album lets you add personal touches like the year or your family's name. Celebrate the season and preserve your favorite memories in style!

1

Gather some acrylic paint, brushes, plastic photo album sleeves, binder rings, and Light Maple Proofgrade Plywood. TIP: make sure your Glowforge settings are Cut and Score!

2

Paint your cover piece a solid color and your tree, letters, and numbers contrasting colors. You can paint right over the Score guidelines.

3

Using the score to align, attach the trees, letters, numbers, and frame with super glue to create your "stamp". Sandwich your plastic photo sleeves between the cover and back.

4

Thread binder rings through the whole thing, and insert your holiday cards to preserve them for years to come!

Crafting Cozy with Ralph: Moody Music, Candlelight, and Cheez-Its

Crafting Setup

Ralph's essentials? A scented candle, the sound of rain (if he's lucky!), and an organized workspace to let his creativity flow. When the candle is lit, you know it's serious!

Entertainment

His ultimate cozy watch? Home Alone 2: Lost in New York. Music fuels his creativity, from moody vibes with Noah Kahan and Maisie Peters to pop bops from Carly Rae Jepsen and alternative favorites like Paramore. He even has a playlist, Crafting, on the Rocks, to keep the vibes just right.

Craft Fuel

Coffee is a must, but if it's a late-night session, a glass of red wine or an Old Fashioned hits the spot. For snacks, Cheez-Its keep it mess-free, and chips with guac are always on hand when hosting.

Dream Projects

Bookbinding is next on his crafting list. He loves the idea of a detailed, methodical craft.

Cozy Scent & Decor

Ralph's go-to scents are woody and natural — think sandalwood, patchouli, and balsam fir. He sprinkles in twinkle lights around the holidays for a festive touch.

Crafting Quirk

If he could craft with anyone, it'd be Hayley Williams or Lady Gaga, with Brittani Broski there to keep the laughs coming. And when it's holiday season, Kelly Clarkson's Underneath the Christmas Tree is his Christmas anthem!
