CLIENT AGREEMENT

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. This Client Agreement (the “Agreement”) is entered by and between you (the “Client”) and us (the “Company”). It sets out the basis on which we will enter into Transactions with you. It governs each Transaction entered into or outstanding between us and you on or after the date that this Agreement comes into effect.
- 1.2. We may refer to ourselves as “we”, “us”, “our”, “ours” or “ourselves”, as appropriate. Similarly, you, the Client, may be referred to as “you”, “your”, “yours” or “yourself”, as appropriate.
- 1.3. The terms of this Client Agreement are legally binding and will take effect after receipt by you, or on you beginning or continuing to undertake business with us.

2. SERVICES WE MAY PROVIDE AND DEALINGS BETWEEN YOU AND US

- 2.1. The Operative Agreements governs all your trading activity and non-trading operations with us. You must read it carefully. Amongst other things, they set out those matters which we are required to disclose to you under the Applicable Regulations.
- 2.2. In relation to any Transaction, we act on a principal-to-principal or agency basis on your behalf. This means that, unless otherwise agreed, we will treat you as our client for all purposes. It also means that, unless otherwise agreed, you will be directly and fully responsible for performing the obligations under each Transaction you make. If you act in relation to or on behalf of another person, we will not accept that person as an indirect client of ours and will accept no obligation to that person, unless otherwise specifically agreed. This is regardless of whether or not you make the identity of that person known to us.
- 2.3. The following Services that we may provide are subject to you fulfilling your obligations owed to us under the Operative Agreements.
- 2.4. We may offer the following Services to you:
 - a) receive and transmit orders or execute (on our own account) orders for you in certain financial instruments as a principal or as an intermediary (in accordance with our Order Execution Policy);
 - b) provide foreign currency services provided they are associated with the provision of an investment service that we offer to you;
 - c) provide safekeeping and administration of financial instruments for your account (as and if applicable). This includes custodianship and related services, such as cash/collateral management; and/or granting you margin to transact with an Instrument, provided that you are party to a Transaction; and
 - d) any other services that we may provide from time to time on these or other terms as agreed between us. We may do whatever we consider necessary or desirable (but are not obliged to do so) for, or incidental to, the provision of our Services including but not limited to the provision of research in relation to any investment, (together, the “Services”).
- 2.5. We transact with you on an execution-only basis and will not:
 - a) provide you with any form of investment advice for your planned Transactions or monitor the status of the current ones;
 - b) check the suitability of the Transaction on your behalf;
 - c) make any statements of opinion to encourage you to make any particular Transaction;
 - d) monitor or advise you on the status of any Transaction; and

- e) close your Open Positions on our own initiative, if this is prohibited by the Applicable Regulations or we will follow the provisions as set out in the Operative Agreements. We can, in our absolute discretion, close your Open Positions when a decision is made to stop offering a product related to your Open Positions.
- 2.6. We may enter into Transactions with you in Instruments specified on our Website. This is subject to you meeting your obligations under the Operative Agreements.
- 2.7. For specific categories of Instruments, you agree to any additional agreements as required posted on our Website or where relevant, Publishing Channels, or share any additional information with us that we may request from time to time. We may subsequently share this information with our authorised agents or third parties as needed from time to time.
- 2.8. You will not receive any form of investment, legal, regulatory, tax, or other advice from us. You should not expect us (or one of our employees or representatives) to provide personal recommendations or advice on the merits of any specific Transactions. When evaluating the merits of a Transaction, it is your responsibility to seek independent advice or rely on your own judgment, market knowledge, and experience.
- 2.9. Profit or loss in the currency denominated in the Trading Account is deposited in and/or withdrawn from the Trading Account once the Transaction is closed.
- 2.10. We may, from time to time and at our discretion, provide factual information about the market or about matters of process and risk related to Transactions or Instruments. We may post this Information on our Website, Publishing Channels or otherwise. Where we do so, the following applies:
 - a) The information is provided solely to enable you to make your own investment decisions and does not amount to investment advice or unsolicited financial promotions;
 - b) The information may contain a restriction on the person or category of persons for whom that document is intended or to whom it is distributed. You agree to not pass it on to any other person; and
 - c) We make no representation, warranty or guarantee as to the accuracy or completeness of such information or to the tax consequences of any Transaction.
- 2.11. We cannot guarantee that you will receive such information at the same time as other Clients. Any information that we provide from time to time on our Website or by other means set out under clause 12.1 including but not limited to push notifications, in-app messaging, on-platform messaging and social channels may appear in one or more screen information services (the “Publishing Channels”).
- 2.12. The information provided by us on our Publishing Channels is subject to change and may be withdrawn by us at any time without notice.
- 2.13. The information does not necessarily take into consideration the relevant legislative or regulatory framework of the country where you are a resident. It is your responsibility to ensure compliance with all applicable laws.

- 2.15. If you elect not to provide such information, or provide insufficient information to us, we may not be able to determine whether the Service or product envisaged is appropriate for you. We will assume that the information you provide to us about your knowledge and experience is accurate. Therefore, we will have no responsibility to you if such information is incomplete, misleading, changes, or becomes inaccurate. This is the case unless you have informed us of any changes in the information you have previously provided to us.
- 2.16. We may suspend your Account at any time for any reason in our absolute discretion. We can do so with or without a Written Notice to you, until and if an alternative remedy is chosen.

These grounds may include but are not limited to the following:

- a) Abnormal Market Conditions;

- b) erroneous Orders;
- c) Stop Loss;
- d) Take Profit;
- e) Instructions made in absence of sufficient Balance; and
- f) any actions that create a negative trading experience for our other clients.

2.17. All trade Requests are subject to size considerations. If the requested trade size is larger than we are able to fill at any particular moment due to prevailing market conditions, then either:

- a) the Order may be executed partially; or
- b) the entire trade or Order may be rejected at our sole discretion.

2.18. We reserve the right to suspend, close, or unwind any Transaction where either of the following occurs:

- a) The Transaction has resulted from any misconfiguration, human error or technical error on our or your part; and
- b) We suspect any fraud, manipulation, arbitrage, or other forms of deceitful or fraudulent activity on your account or multiple accounts you hold with us or otherwise related or connected to any and/or all Transactions.

2.19. Under such circumstances mentioned above, we will be entitled to withdraw any profits and charge any costs which we deem, in our sole discretion, to have been inappropriately gained by you. We will not be liable for:

- a) the cancelation of any Transaction or profits; or
- b) in the event of any damages or losses which may result from the suspension, closure or unwinding.

2.20. You agree to transfer your personal data to us. We are registered as a data controller by law. This data is used for identification, administrative, and business purposes so we can meet our legal and contractual duties under this and other agreements between the parties. We can also transfer this data to auditors, lawyers, financial consultants, and other service providers and partners we work with.

2.21. We may offer you the option to open and trade on a demo account. Execution in a demo account environment might lead to a different outcome than in a live one. We are not liable for any loss or other damage that you may incur because of these differences in execution.

3. YOUR TRADING HISTORY RECORDS

3.1. You understand, confirm, and accept that we may at any time and in our sole discretion archive any and/or all of your trading history in Trading Platforms. This can be done without prior written consent and/or Written Notice to you. The trading history may be summarised into a single line in the respective trading account, where such trading history records exceed a timeframe of one (1) month.

3.2. You further understand, confirm, and accept that such archived trading and non-trading history will be accessible and/or downloadable at any time. This can be done from and/or within the Client Dashboard.

3.3. We confirm that your archived original trading history records from Trading Platforms within the Client Dashboard will be accessible and/or downloadable by you at any time. This can be done from and/or within the Client Dashboard.

3.4. We confirm that all Client records and/or trading and non-trading activity, current and/or past and/or archived will be maintained for the relevant retention period pursuant to the Applicable Regulations.

4. TAX FILINGS AND LEVIES

- 4.1. You are solely responsible for all tax filings, returns and reports on any Transactions under applicable law and Applicable Regulations. You are solely responsible for payment of all taxes (including any transfer or value added taxes) arising in connection with any Transaction.

5. CORPORATE ACTIONS

- 5.1. When you trade stocks, stock CFDs, and indices, we may notify you of the corporate actions that apply to these Instruments. However, we are not obliged to do so. These corporate actions may include but are not limited to:
- a) stock splits;
 - b) reverse splits;
 - c) spin-offs;
 - d) dividends;
 - e) entitlement issues;
 - f) mergers & acquisitions;
 - g) reorganisations;
 - h) takeover offers; and
 - i) name and symbol changes.
- 5.2. It is your responsibility to keep track of the upcoming corporate events that may affect your Instruments and any open Positions you have.
- 5.3. You may be eligible to partake in a pending or active class action or group class action. We will not notify you about any pending or active class actions or group actions in which you are eligible to partake.
- 5.4. We will apply corporate actions to your Instruments on the basis of good faith and market practice.
- 5.5. We will also consider how these corporate actions impact our dealings with liquidity providers and other intermediaries that we use. We may pass on the outcome to you. Please note that this may incur additional costs for you and we are not required to provide additional warning.
- 5.6. Where a corporate event affects some, but not all, Instruments held in a pooled account, we will allocate the affected Instruments to any eligible clients. We will do so in a fair and equitable manner.
- 5.7. We will reflect a corporate action on your Trading Account only after receiving confirmation from the relevant counterparties and intermediaries that the corporate actions have been completed.
- 5.8. We may close out any of your Open Positions at the market price following a corporate event to make any required adjustment due to the corporate actions.
- 5.9. You should have sufficient Balance to buy any additional stocks available to you as a result of a corporate action. If funds or stocks are due to you without any additional payment, they will be deposited to your Trading Account. This will be subject to any applicable fees and taxes.
- 5.10. If you are entitled to a fraction of a stock, we may aggregate those fractional entitlements and sell the aggregate. We may then deposit the proceeds to your Trading Account subject to any applicable fees.
- 5.11. In the case of a spin-off, it may be applied to the primary symbol and will not be transferred to the new spin-off. We will add the spin-off symbol to market watch as soon as practicable, but we cannot guarantee that this will take place before market opening.

- 5.12. We may inform and assist you in exercising your voting rights attached to the ownership of your stocks at an annual general meeting of shareholders of the stock issuer or otherwise. We are not obliged to do this. If we do this, you must return any valid election correspondence by the deadline we specify. Your elections are deemed to be irrevocable and final from the moment we receive them.
- 5.13. If you do not meet the election correspondence deadline, we may opt to vote on your behalf on the default terms.
- 5.14. You may be responsible for claiming and receiving dividends, interest payments, and other income payments accruing to your Instruments. We may claim or reclaim tax credits on dividends or other income on eligible stocks.

6. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

- 6.1. When we deal with you or on your behalf, we (or one of our employees, officers, or an associate affiliated with us) may have a material interest in the outcome of your transaction. This interest may conflict with your interest.
- 6.2. If there is a potential conflict of interest involving you or any of our clients, we will manage the conflict in accordance with our Conflicts Policy which can be found on our Website or is available on request.
- 6.3. A potential conflict of interest exists in the following circumstances:
 - a) We are on the other side of your Transaction as a principal trading on our own account;
 - b) We are on the other side of your Transaction as a matched principal and cannot trade on our own account;
 - c) We may match your Transaction with that of another client by acting on their behalf as well as on yours;
 - d) We may deal in an Instrument which we may have covered when providing factual information about the market to a client on our Website or our Publishing Channels;
 - e) We may provide Services to other clients concerning Transactions in a market that might be against your interests;
 - f) If you were introduced to us by our associate, we may pay a fee to this associate. This fee may depend on the volume of your Transactions, or under a different fee arrangement; and
 - g) We may receive inducements (including non-monetary) from persons other than our clients if permissible under the Applicable Regulations. This is if the inducements are designed to enhance the quality of our Services and do not impair our ability to act in the best interests of our clients.
- 6.4. You hereby acknowledge that you are aware of the possibility that certain circumstances may result in a conflict of interest. You authorise us to proceed with the Transaction in question notwithstanding such conflict.

7. COMMISSIONS, CHARGES AND OTHER COSTS

- 7.1. You will be obliged to pay us the commissions, charges and other costs (including Spreads) as set out on our Website or as notified to you from time to time under the Operative Agreements and Publishing Channels.
- 7.2. We may vary commissions, charges and other costs from time to time without prior Written Notice to you. All changes in commissions, charges and other costs are displayed on the Website and posting on the Website and if relevant Publishing Channels will apply immediately after they are published.
- 7.3. It is your responsibility to stay informed about the latest commissions, charges, and additional costs that will be applied to you as a result of the Transaction.
- 7.4. We may, from time to time, where not prohibited by Applicable Regulations, deal on your behalf with persons with whom we have a soft commission arrangement with. This soft commission arrangement permits us (or another member of our group) to receive goods or services in return for transacting investment business with such persons.

- 7.5. It is our policy in relation to these agreements to ensure that such arrangements operate in your best interest. For example, because the arrangements allow access to information or other benefits which would not otherwise be available.
- 7.6. You undertake to pay all stamp expenses relating to this Agreement and any documentation which may be required for the carrying out of the Transactions.
- 7.7. We may also charge you for the provision of other Trading Account features and settlement services (as applicable). Additional charges may be disclosed in the Operative Agreements.
- 7.8. Your funds are held in our accounts, including segregated accounts opened in our name on your behalf for holding your funds. This is separate from our own funds.
- 7.9. Unless you are notified in advance, you acknowledge and agree that we will not pay interest to you on funds that are located in your accounts.
- 7.10. We will be entitled, at our sole discretion, to refuse to provide the subscription for a particular Trading Account or all of your Trading Accounts. We can also cancel a previously provided subscription without giving prior notice or explanation of reasons.
- 7.11. We will, under no circumstances, be held liable for not canceling the subscription due to your inability to access the Trading Account.

8. PAYMENT, CURRENCY CONVERSION AND SET-OFF

- 8.1. The amounts payable to you under the Operative Agreements are automatically converted by us into the currency you chose when opening the Trading Account. For these conversions, we use the relevant exchange rate for spot dealings in the foreign exchange market.
- 8.2. We are entitled, without prior notice to you, to make any currency conversions which we consider necessary or desirable for the purposes of complying with our obligations or exercising our rights under the Operative Agreements or any Transaction. - 8.7. You acknowledge and agree that we have the right to close out your Open Positions and exercise other default remedies against you. This is without prejudice to any of our other rights under the Agreement.
- 8.8. When a sum is due and payable to us in accordance with the Agreement, and sufficient cleared funds have not yet been credited to your Trading Account, we will be entitled to treat you as having failed to make a payment to us. We can then exercise our rights under the Agreement.

- 8.10. Any sum payable by you to us under the Operative Agreements may be worth the following:

 - b) An excess of the aggregate amount payable by us to you. In this case, we may set-off any mutual obligations in respect of payments owed to us by you or payments owed to you by us and claim the difference owed to us by you.
- 8.11. In the event you have multiple Trading Accounts with us, we may discharge any amounts due to it under one Trading Account. We can do so by transferring funds from the Balance of any other trading Account you hold with us.
- 8.12. As a result of this transfer, you may suffer losses due to margin calls, triggered Stop Outs, and the Trading Account may go into a negative Balance. If this occurs, we will not be liable other than where a negative balance protection exists under Applicable Regulation.
