VALET PARKING	SELF PARKING
0-8 hours $20.00	0-8 hours $15.00
Over Night $40.00	Over Night $30.00

What are the dates and times of the conference?

The event takes place Friday, October 4, 2024. The conference begins promptly at 8 a.m. and concludes at 4 p.m.

Are meals included in my registration fee?

Attendees will receive a light breakfast and lunch.

Are there CEUs for this event?

Momentous Institute is a licensed provider of CEUs in the state of Texas for LPC, LMFT, and LCSW. And an approved Continuing Professional Education (CPE) Provider in Texas with TEA (#902-493). Participants will receive CEU credits for the one-day conference.

When will I receive my CEU certificate?

Please note that to receive a certificate, a person must not only sign in but also complete a conference evaluation. Once an evaluation is received, a certificate will be emailed to the email address used to register for the event. Please allow two-four weeks to receive your certificate from the date you complete your evaluation. Please note that the evaluation portion of the app will be disabled on October 12, 2024. All evaluations must be completed prior to October 12, 2024, to receive a certificate.

What payment forms are accepted?

Momentous Institute accepts credit cards, checks, and purchase orders. Please note some "sale pricing is only available for credit card payment.

For payment by purchase order, select "Purchase Order" and enter a valid purchase order number in the field. If a purchase order number is not available at time of registration, it must be emailed to events@momentousinstitute.org no later than August 30, 2024.

Any registration not accompanied by a purchase order within 30 days may be cancelled.

All payments must be received by August 30, 2024. Any registration not paid in full by August 30, 2024 will be cancelled.

What if I cannot attend?

All refund requests must be submitted by email to events@momentousinstitute.org no later than August 30, 2024. Refunds cannot be issued by phone or by any other method.

Because refunds incur significant administrative time and processing fees, any refunds will be issued minus a $25 processing fee.

All refunds will be processed after the conclusion of the event (minus the processing fee) using the same payment method used at the point of registration.

No refunds will be issued after August 30.

In lieu of a refund, a guest may elect to send someone else to his/her place. To do so, the guest should email events@momentousinstitute.org and include the following: the name of the registered attendee, the name of the new attendee and the email address of the new attendee. There is a $25 processing fee to change attendees.

Name change requests must be submitted by August 30, 2024.

Where should I stay?

A limited number of rooms have been reserved at a discounted rate at the Omni Dallas Hotel. Please call 1-800-THE-OMNI to reserve your room and mention Momentous Institute and the Changing the Odds Conference with Momentous Institute to receive the discount or use this link to book on the conference room block. Please note the last day to reserve a room under this reduced-price block is September 12, 2024, 5 p.m.

Please do not book accommodation until your event registration is completed if the conference sells out. Momentous Institute is not responsible for fees or charges related to lodging.

Are there any discounts or scholarships available?

Thanks to generous conference sponsors, there are a limited number of scholarships available to help offset the cost. The scholarship application will be available via this link until August 30, 2024. A committee will review the applications and determine scholarships. Scholarship recipients will be notified by September 27, 2024.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
